KioWare is Proud to Celebrate 25 Years

1991
Found Analytical Design Solutions, Inc. (ADSI) as an Engineering Consulting Firm primarily consulting for AMP Inc. providing product development & CAD services.

1995
Expand into IT/SysAdmin and start subsidiary Carolina Networks, Inc. in Greensboro, NC.

1998
Hire Lynn Crumbling (longest continuously active employee.)

1999
Hire Shannon Aldinger (still employed.)

Expand services offered in CAD and diversify into lean manufacturing.

2000
Start working in software development with CLOZER.

2001
Frank McKee of St Andrew Development brings ADSI in on a kiosk project for American Cancer Society.

2003
KioWare kiosk software is launched as an independent product. The Windows product is marketed and sold online to clients both domestically and internationally.

Meet and establish a relationship with kiosk industry veteran, Ed Crowley.

2004
Register KioWare as a DBA.

2005
Office moves to 232-236 W Market St. (which now houses Small Star Art House.) Patti Stirk is the landlord and an early business partner with Star Systems.

KioWare Kiosk Software wins Kiosk Reader's Choice Award.

2006
Ongoing consulting work and AutoCAD Training for Tyco Electronics Corp.

KioWare Kiosk Software wins 2 more awards: Kiosk Reader's Choice Award & Outstanding Achievement in Healthcare Self-Service.

2010
Gina Kruper steps in as General Manager at KioWare.

KioWare Kiosk Software wins Best Entertainment/Gaming Deployment, & Best Overall Software Solution.

2011
Gina & family start non-profit "Paula G Hamberger Memorial Fund" in honor of their mother. Olivia's House is the largest beneficiary of the fund.

2012
KioWare for Android is released.

Jim & Gina form 227 West Market Associates LP to purchase the building at 227 W Market Street. KioWare moves into second floor offices. First floor tenants now include: Big Brothers Big Sisters, Comfort Keepers of York, Snyder, Secary & Associates. One suite is currently available (2,035 Sq Ft.)

2013
Jim Kruper is inducted into the Kiosk Hall of Fame.

2014
Jim & Gina become members of the Corporate Board of Directors at the YMCA of York.

KioWare begins participating in the York College of PA Co-op program, hiring computer engineering students as interns.

Jim & Gina join the YorIt Initiative | Philanthropy & Leadership in York, PA.

2015
KioWare for Windows (on Chromium browser) is released.

KioCloud Kiosk Management (KioWare hosted KioWare Kiosk Management) is released.

KioWare opens an office in the UK and forms KioWare Europe Ltd.

Gina & Jim become members of the YCP Industry Advisory Council, helping to guide the future of the YCP engineering program.

2016
ADSI dba KioWare celebrates 25 years in business.

KIOWARE®
kiosk system software